DESCRIPTION:

The RITZ LONG II pendant lamp consists of an impressive lampshade made of Italian ribbons and decorative slings. From the bottom, the hole is capped with a milky plastic blind. Rated at IP20, the fixture can be used indoors. Its elongated shape will accentuate the space above a dining table or kitchen isle. In office spaces, the lamp will elevate the rank and warm the mood of your conference hall. In public spaces, such as hotel lobby or restaurant, its warm light will create elegant ambiance.

It is very elegant and the size will brighten up every ceiling. The textured finish draws attention to quality and creates an interesting, cozy atmosphere. With its open bottom, the lamp provides excellent lighting. If possible, use a dimmer to create any mood and take full advantage of the lamp's possibilities.
